

Can Staff Member Come to Work?

Answer No to all screening questions below

Temp >100.4 degrees
New Cough
Difficulty Breathing
Chills
Muscle Pain
Sore Throat
New Loss of Taste or Smell
Chest Pain or pressure
New confusion
Diarrhea, Nausea or Vomiting
Persistent Headache
Congestion or Runny Nose not related to seasonal allergies

*Must be fever free without the aid of medication

Staff member can come to work/school

Staff member questions an exposure with someone diagnosed with COVID-19 or someone with COVID-19 Symptoms OR staff member is experiencing multiple symptoms

Contact your immediate supervisor to discuss exposure. Quarantine status will be determined using guidance from the local health department or the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

If it is determined that exposure meets quarantine guidelines and qualifies for COVID medical leave

Staff member should not come to work and should notify

- Their supervisor or principal
- Their healthcare provider for instructions

Follow healthcare providers instructions and quarantine guidelines using guidance from the local health department or the CDC

Completed Return to Work Form to be completed by healthcare provider or local health department

If it is determined that exposure does not meet the quarantine guidelines. Staff member can choose to either:

Stay home and take either personal accrued sick leave or vacation time

Go to work and continue to monitor for any symptoms

Staff member has tested Positive for COVID-19, with or without symptoms
Or staff member is having symptoms and is waiting for test results
Qualifies for COVID Medical leave

Staff member should not come to work and should notify

- Their supervisor or principal
- Their healthcare provider for instructions

Follow healthcare provider instructions and isolation guidelines

Completed Return to Work Form to be completed by healthcare provider or local health department